VICE-PRESIDENT STEVENSON.

A Loser in The Chemical Bank Swindle.

WHAT PRECIPITATED THE CRISIS

Secretary Wilson Acts in the Fruit Matter--Fire Destroys a Y.M. C. A. Building.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Philadelphia, Feb. 4—Former Vice-President Stevenson is in consultation with other stockholders in the Grable concerns. He is president of one of the companies and a large stockholder. The Chemical bank disclosures have worried him.

WHAT PRODUCED THE CRASH.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 4—Developments brought out by the inquiry into the bad loans of the Chemical National bank to Grable and Silver show that Grable precipitated the crisis by demanding a further loan of $50,000 on last Thursday.

SECRETARY WILSON ACTS.

Washington, Feb. 4—Secretary Wilson has taken steps for the collection of all the information obtainable bearing upon the shipment of fresh fruit to the German Empire.

A COSTLY BLAZE.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 4—A big fire this morning destroyed the Y. M. C. A. building and the structures surrounding it. The loss is $200,000.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 4, '98.

Fireman J. Mosa Burns who was so severely hurt in the wreck on the Ashboro and Aberdeen railroad, died last night at 8:20 o'clock. The doctors decided that Mr. Burns' leg would have to be amputated. The operation was performed by Drs. Bahnson, Hinley Boyette and Burns at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The patient was unable to stand the shock. Mr. Burns leaves a widow, who is a daughter of Mr. W. R. Smith, of High Point The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. W. P. Smith left today for Ashboro to attend the funeral of his son-in-law, Mr. J. Moss Burns.

Evangelists, B. P. Purdham and R. B. Hottel will commence a series of meeting next Sunday at 3 o'clock at Jarrells Hall. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these meetings. They will last through the week.

Mrs. A. E. Morton, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting her sister here for some weeks, left this morning for home.

Miss Nellie Lindsay, one of High Point's most attractive young ladies, left this morning for a visit to friends in Manchester, Va.

Miss Bessie Hoskins returned last night from her extended trip in Virginia, where she has been visiting relatives.

The gents who were found gambling last Saturday night in D. I. Brook's house were bound over to court last night, after a preliminary hearing before Mayor Bradshaw.

The concert given by the old folks last night at the Opera House was well attended, an enjoyable evening was spent by everyone present.

Mrs. Elliott, of Hickory, passed through this morning en route to Ashboro.

T. R. Lashley left this morning for his home in Wake County.

Mrs. W. B. Steel left this morning for a visit to friends in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McAlister, of Greensboro, passed through this morning from Ashboro.

A GOLD HEADED CANE

Presented to the Retiring Postmaster.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, N. C. February, 4.—The office force last night presented retiring Postmaster Wilson with a beautiful gold headed cane as a token of their appreciation of him during his term of that office.

The new postmaster and his assistants are smiling behind their respective desks.

There are rumblings of the resuscitation of the Republican club here, getting ready for the municipal campaign in May.

Perry Heath first assistant postmaster arrived this morning, and is the guest of R. J. Reynolds.

Five Days Adrift.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 4—Six men who have been for five days adrift in the fury of the storm on dredging scows were rescued today, badly frost-bitten. They floated a hundred miles out to sea. The scows parted the line from the tug on Sunday and were lost in the storm.

Killed in a Collision.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Edinburgh, Feb. 4—Nine Persons were killed and other injured in a collision at Barassie, near Kalmornock, today.

JAPAN'S FLEET MANOEUVERING.

THE PRESS IS SILENT ON THE EASETERN SITUATION.

It is Believed that Premier Ito is Awaiting the Settlement of German Claims.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Yokahoma, Feb. 4—The Japan fleet is manœuvering here previous to a cruise in Chinese waters. The Japanese press is silent on the situation. In China it is belived that the Premier, Marquis Ito, is awaiting the settlement of the German claims before committing Japan to any definite policy. The Russian squadron is without smokeless coal and the supply of any kind is small.

The Governor on His Ear.

A Washington special to the Charlotte Observer says:

Governor Russell is quoted in Washington as saying that he "Will protect Railroad Commissioners Caldwell and Pearson against the rule recently issued by the Supreme Court of the United States to the full extent of his resources as commander-in-chief of the state militia."

He is reported as having advised resistance to the order of the Supreme Court, saying that the object of the removal of the Wilsons as railroad commissioners was to precipitate a conflict between the State and Federal judiciary. "I will go to jail," he is quoted a saying, "to make the question of Federal usurpation the paramount issue in the next State campaign."

The Best Yet.

The performance at the Academy last night by the Lillian Tucker company in "A Bachelor's Wife" was pronounced by many to be the best of the engagement so far. A fair sized audience greeted them.

On account of the Veteran Corps Band having the house for tonight, the Lillian Tucker company will not appear until tomorrow afternoon when they give a matinee, and at night when they will appear in "Led Astray," which will close sheir engagement in this city.

Succeeding Easily.

The indications are that there will be no trouble in organizing a lodge of the order of Elks here. The gentleman who has the matter in hand says nearly everybody he approaches puts down his name as a member.

The Elks have a reputation for being jolly and ought to have a lodge here to add to the general gayety.

THE CZAR'S ULTIMATUM.

He Tells the Sultan Prince George Must be Governor of Crete.

London, Feb. 2.—The candidature of Prince George of Greece for the Governorship of Crete has been the shuttlecock of the foreign correspondents for some time. A dispatch from Berlin says that the Constantinople correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung now declares that M. Zinovleff, the Russian Ambassador to Turkey, has handed the Porte a note received from St. Petersburg declaring it to be the unshakable will of the Czar that Prince George be appointed. The note added that his appointedment was necessary for urgent political reasons. If the Sultan persists in his oppisition to Prince George, Russia will renounce all further initiative at the Yildiz Kiosk.

The note seems to have threatened the withdrawal of the warships at Crete, by which withdrawal, it was added, the lives of all the Mussulmans there would be endangered, and, the note continued, "Russia will know how to prevent the landing of fresh Turkish troops."

It has been already reported from credible sources that the Sultan has twice positively refused to accept Prince George as Governor of the island, basing his opposition on the temper of the Turkish nation. It seems that something must soon break.—N. Y. Sun.

No Law Against Bigamy.

Des Moies, Ia., Feb. 2—The discovery has been made that bigamy and even polygamy are not prohibited under the Iowa laws. Of course there is no sanction for a violation of the laws that obtain in other states with regard to matrimony, but as matters now stand there is no provision here for the prosecution of a bigamist.

The situation is due to a curious omission in the revised Iowa code, which prescribed no penalty for bigamy and does not prohibit a plurality of wives. The defect will be remedied by the legislature.

Spanked The Schoolma'am.

Joplin, Mo., Feb. 3—Miss Ollie Maddox, the school mistress at the village of Avilla, in Jasper county has resigned because of an embarrassing incident. On last Friday she had occasion to chastise an unruly boy of 13 years, but he resisted so vigorously that the teacher failed to conquer him.

On Monday Miss Maddox again attempted to chastise the obstreperous boy, when his 14-year old brother went to his assistance. The two then gave their teacher a spanking. The affair created a sensation at Avilla and the young woman concluded to resign.

X-Ray Lecture.

Correspondence Telegram.

Guilford College, N. C., Feb. 3.—Prof. Henry Louis Smith, of Davidson College, will deliver an illustrated lecture on the X-rays at Guilford College next Saturday night. Prof. Smith is a very fine speaker and no doubt will make the workings of the mysterious X-rays, very easy to understand. As he will have his apparatus with him, views of the bones in one's hand and similar things will be shown. We almost daily see accounts of the X-rays being used in surgical operations or rather to aid them and now we have a chance to see the practical workings of the X-rays. An admission of 25cts, will be charged.

A PAIR OF COLLISIONS.

TWO TRAINS RUN TOGETHER ON THE FITCHBURG ROAD.

A Freight and Passenger Collide Killing Five People and Injuring Thirty-Six.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Fitchburg, Mass., Feb. 4—An accident occurred on the Fitchburg road at Porter Station this morning. One train crashed into another and several passengers were slightly injured.

KILLED THE TRAIN CREW.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Glasgow, Feb. 3—A mail and freight have been in collision on the Glasgow and Southwestern railway near Troon. The driver, fireman and five workmen aboard the mail train were killed. Thirty-six people were injured, some of them fatally.

COTTON FACTORY INCORPORATED

A Big Enterprise for Stanly County With $175,000 Capital Stock.

The Secretary of State yesterday incorporated "The Wiscossett Mill Company," of Stanly county. The capital stock of the company is to be not less than $175,000 and may be increased to $500,000.

The incoporation papers are taken out for a term of thirty years, and the principal place of business is to be Albemarle.

The business of the corporation shall be that of spinning and weaving wool, cotton and other textile productions and manufacturing of same into cloth and other fabrics and the sale of such manufactured products.

The incorporators are J. W. Cannon, D. F. Cannon, J. S. Efird and K. L. Davis.—Raleigh Post.

They Did Not Drink.

The story is told of two Mormons elders as happening in a town not far distant, in which one of their doctrines was given a practical test. The story relates that especial emphasis had been made in their sermons upon the doctrine that, if they drank any deadly thing it should not hurt them; the Lord being their especial protector. At the end of the sermon the pastor, who had courteously loaned them his church, arose and said: "Now brethren, we have listened attentively to this doctrine and if by practical test you can demonstrate this we will accept the doctrine. I have here a quantity of strchnine which I will mix in water and if you drink it and survive we will believe." It is reported that they did not drink.—Winston Journal.

Notice.

It is urgent that State and county taxes be paid at once. The money is needed to meet current expenses and state taxes. Will advertise land for taxes soon. Fair warning to all.

Very Respectfully,
J. A. HOSKINS, Sheriff.

SOUTHERN STOCK WILL RISE

Common Stockholders Advised to Hold On

WHAT IS THERE BEHIND IT?

Alleged that Expenses are to be Cut and Increased Dividends Declared Forcing Up the Stock.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 4—A gentleman well known in political and business circles here made an important statement in regard to the stock of the Southern railway this morning. He advises the holders of common stock to hold on to it. He recites as reasonable that the management of the reorganized system will pay cut expenses so that the road will a regular dividend on the preferred stock which will rise rapidly so soon as the dividend now being declared is paid regularly. As it is every week's returns shows a large increase in receipts and profits. The common stock will rise along with the preferred.

Special Tax.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction is notified of three more counties which by special tax and private subscriptions have raised money for the public schools, these being Greene $354.50 Haywood $210, Watauga $169.—Col. Olds.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

FRIDAY, FEB. 4, 1898.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

A Princeton student is said to have become crazed at church yesterday and disturbed a wedding. An yet Princeton Inn is supposed to have been abolished.

From the fact that no Spanish victories have been chronicled in the past two days it is to be inferred that the Cuban question is no longer under discussion in Congress.

It is probable that before coming out as an anti-Quay candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, at the solicitation of many friends, John Wanamaker will carefully walk all around that statesman.

One consoling thought about the proposition to reach the north pole by a submarine boat is that the boat cannot afford to be rising to the surface every few minutes to liberate a carrier pigeon.

The man who killed a German sentry at Kiao Chou was executed. Sheriff Martin and his deputies, who amused themselves by picking off foreign miners last fall, may well be glad that they are not Chinamen.

Up to the present time lynchers have not shown any inclination to adopt the new fangled method of electrocution. The halter and the telegraph pole still occupy the old fond place in their hearts as an unfailing open sesame.

Among all the suggestions that have been and are being made as to that federal judgeship, why is it that no one has recalled that His Excellency, Governor Russell, is a lawyer and a republican, and that his present salary is only $3,000 per annum?

The New York Sun says the idea of reaching the pole by a submarine boat is a novel one. Does not Stockton suggest it in his "Great Stone of Sardis"? The ball-bearing trotting sulky was the suggestion of a reporter and a novelist may be the means of solving the polar mystery.

The beauties of the Dingley tariff law are being brought home to American fruit growers just now. As a retaliatory measure the importation of American fruit has been stopped and quantities already enroute turned back at the frontiers. It is a case of reciprocity merely. Germany can not be blamed. In order that a few manufacturers may declare increased dividends the republican party does not hesitate to make commercial enemies of other nations.

The International Exposition and World's fair business, and indeed the fair business generally, is very much in danger of being overdone in this country. Chicago led off, then came Atlanta, followed by Nashville and Omaha, and now a New York solon wants New York to have one in 1901. Fairs are a very good thing, perhaps, and may help along the cause of commerce, but we might, with safety, rest even beyond 1901.

In the eastern crisis England is either working some very smooth diplomacy or a bold piece of bluffing. She began by demanding with a show of force what Russia could not afford to yield. She ends by getting what she really desired—an unhampered privilege of trading in the Empire. She is said to have backed down; she has been known to do such things. She probably asks a big price that she can afford to "drop." A shrewd shopkeeper is England.

Jndge Hagner, of the Equity court at Washington, has decided that it is unconstitutional for Congress to appropriate money to sectarian institutions. Whether this is contrary to the letter of the constitution, or not, it is to the spirit and the decision ought to stand when the case comes before the Supreme Court. It stops a breach through which might come all sorts of disorder to the country. Such appropriations have already been the cause of much bitter discussion. The rights of the states to manage their own affairs, the absolute separation of church and state let: these two fundamentals be preserved inviolate. To depart from them is to pave the way for the decline of the Republic.

Another crank proposes to bring a lot of camels from Vladivostok and ship them to Alaska by way of Japan. He expects to use them to take supplies into the Yukon country.

Chief O'Neil, of the ordnance bureau, says there are now in the New York navy yard 150 torpedoes, valued at about $450,000, improperly stored, and an extra appropriation of $24,500 is asked.

The women of Seattle, Wash., have instituted a society of Klondyke Widows. The lists are exclusive, being restricted to those whose claims to "Klondyke widowhood" are indisputable. Only the wives and sweethearts of men off to the gold fields are eligible, and no others need apply.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervogs system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C, E. Holton's drug store.

One-Cent-a-Word

[Advertisements inserted in this column at one cent per word for each insertion.]

WE HAVE in stock six or seven dozen pairs of men's shoes that are very slightly shopworn; part of them have been on hand since last fall, some longer. For all practical purposes these shoes are just as good as if they had just come out of the factory yesterday, but a little of the new is off, and we don't want them in the store any longer. Experience has taught us that the quickest way to clear out stock of this kind is to cut prices and sell them for less than they are worth. We have also learned that a slight cut in prices does not have the desired effect, consequently we have priced these shoes so low that it will be worth any man's while, who cares more for comfort and durability than he does for style, to come in and look them over and buy a pair or two. Ask to see the cut price shoes advertised in The Telegram, so we can tell whether Telegram ads do any good, and oblige,

GOOSE GREASE LINIMENT CO.,
Greensboro, N. C.:
I feel it my duty to testify to the superior merits of "Rice's Goose Grease" as a cough cure. On Friday night the 7th inst I coughed almost the entire night. Cough syrups etc. failing to bring any relief whatever. On the following night I decided to test the virtue of your remedy by bathing my chest thoroughly with it and going to bed, and I tell you honestly I never slept sounder in my life. only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values; and

The Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper

To publish ALL THE NEWS promptly and succintly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep AN OPEN EYE FOR PUBLIC ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its DAILY EDITIONS of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of ONE CENT—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOLLOW.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 180,000 copies, and an average exceeding 120,00 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

"Strange, 'tis Passing Strange"

That all who suffer do not use

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Hopewell, Mecklenburg Co., N. C.
December 1, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in Thirty-six hours the inflamation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would have died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If any one is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great that I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for the Remedy as it deserves.

GUNNERY PRACTICE.

An Occasion When Quickness of Action Prevented a Fearful Disaster.

An officer of the United States navy relates the following as illustrating some of the perils of gunnery at sea:

"I came very near going up into the air in small bits on this last squadron cruise. We were at heavy gun practice at sea and but for the quickness of a gunner's mate would never have returned. As you probably know, the heavy guns in the turrets are fired by electricity, the gun being discharged simply by pressing a button. The officer in command of the forward turret on our ship during rapid firing practice was just about to press the button to fire one of our big guns when a gunner's mate was seen to grab at something on the wall of the turret and then fall in a heap on the floor. The officer pressed the button, but the gun was not discharged. When the mate came to, he was asked what had happened, and he informed the officer that the breech of the gun had not been locked and that what he grabbed at on the wall was the wires forming the electric firing circuit.

"When he saw that the officer was preparing to fire the gun and at the same time observed that the breech of the gun was not locked, the only thing that occurred to him to prevent the gun being discharged was to destroy the circuit, which he did promptly and effectively. When all this occurred, there was a charge of 250 pounds of powder in the gun, another charge of the same size in the turret ready to be served, and the passageway leading to the powder magazine was wide open. But for the quickness of the gunner's mate the gun would have been blown out inside the turret, the gases from the burning powder would probably have ignited the charge lying in the turret, this explosion would have ignited the powder in the magazine, and the chances are that the whole ship, crew and all, would have gone up in the air. A thought that has occurred to me is this: Suppose the accident had occurred, what do you imagine the verdict of a board of inquiry as to the cause of the loss of the ship would have been? Since his experience the department has adopted electrical means to prevent the discharge of any of the large guns until the breech is locked."—San Francisco Chronicle.

The French Peasant.

The French peasant has an independent means of existence. He owns the soil he tills. If he employs laborers, they at least will own a house and garden and hope to own a plot. The English villager is either a small tradesman or a laborer. A garden which he cultivates but does not own is, as a rule, the extent of his possessions. There are two classes in an Engish village, and these may be subdivided into various religious sects. There is only one class in our French commune—a fact which has a material bearing upon the social economy of the community. Every inhabitant of the commune is a proprietor of something, and all are bent on saving; yet, with all their individualism, they combine for common and mutual interest. This is illustrated by the organization of the syndicate for buying at wholesale prices. They unite for the cultivation of the soil, lending each other horses and making up teams. Every commune has a field, which is common property and where, on payment of a trifling fee, animals graze. After the harvest all the fields become common property, and the gros betail and the other betail are allowed to roam at large.—Contemporary Review.

The Modern Celebrity.

"What! You never heard of him! Why, his name is a household word."

"Indeed! A story writer?"

"No, he butchered eight people."—Cleveland Leader.

Not the Correct Thing.

Signal Service Man (meeting dyspeptic acquaintance)—Fine day, Jones!

Jones—Oh, don't talk shop!—Chicago Tribune.

In the New York directory for 1812 is the entry, "Peter Cooper, machinist, 98 Elm street." Elm street was then one of the poorer localities.

If all the houses in England were placed side by side, they would cover a space of 450 square miles.

Penjab—"Oh, I tell you I am looming right up alongside of Anthony Hope! There is only one trifling little difference now between his stories and mine." "What is that?" Penjab—"Why, the publishers jump at his stories and they jump on mine."—Truth.

"Do you know a good tonic for nervous persons, Simpkins?" "No; what I want to find is a good tonic for people who have to live with them."—Boston Traveler.

"Have you caught that murderer yet?" "No," replied the detective, "we haven't caught him. But we've got him so scared he doesn't dare to show himself when we're around."—Washington Star.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C E. Holton's drug store.

L. BANKS HOLT SECRETARY.

Named at the Second Annual Meeting of Pet Stock Association.

New York, Feb. 3—The National Pet Stock Association held its second annual meeting at Madison Square Garden today, with the 34 members present. A permanent examination was adopted and plans were discussed for the holding of a pet stock show in this city soon. This ticket was nominated for officers for the year, the election to take place later: President, H. B. Savage, of Texas; vice-president L. Banks Holt, of North Carolina; secretary, Jos. Lawrence, of Massachusetts; treasurer, Henry Hencon, of New York.

The social democracy (Debs) of New York city has asked California's governor to pardon S. D. Worden, sentenced to die for the wrecking of a train in the California railroad strike and killing three soldiers.

Man always meets trouble half way, and then stands on a corner expecting happiness to come along.—Emma Carleton.

Mr. Sherwood Can Play.

Much has been said about the coming of William H. Sherwood to our city. We make the following extracts, not from newspaper comments, but from a book by Ehrlich, entitled "Celebrated Pianists of the Past and Present." In this book there is a collection of one hundred and thirty-nine biographies with portraits. Read a few notes:

"Mr. Sherwood can play; in fact, he is a virtuoso of virtuosi. He not only plays, but he plays with a certainty and assurance, and withal an economy of means, that no technical difficulties can daunt."

"His gradations of tonal power from the softest pianissimo to the the strongest fortissimo, guided as they are by a musical intelligence of the highest order, the subservance of his wonderful technic to his musical feeling give Mr. Sherwood a power as a pianist, which is excelled by none."

"He is heard with equal interest by musician and layman. The hearer departs from the recital with a sense of satisfaction and completeness."

An Order of Woodmen.

An order of the Woodmen is to be organized here shortly. The object of the order is fraternal insurance and it has grown with almost phenomenal rapidity within the last few years. The general organizer for Virginia, North and South Carolina, E. S. Moore, is getting up the lodge here. Over 30 members have been secured.

It's All Over Now.

Mother, may I go out and skate?
Yes, daughter if you'll be nice;
And don't, now please don't, stay out late,
And don't you go near the ice.

The above is original poetry—nothing more nor less, and the man who wrote it afterwards fell through a hole in the ice and got wet.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

Notes of The Prowler

To the man who likes to study types there is no more interesting place than the depot here. Every manner of man produced in the Old North State (and the varieties are infinite) from the old time darkey with his white locks and deferential air, nearly the only survival one sees nowadays of the old south, to the fresh young college-man fresh from college honors—all may be seen there. The dweller in the sand flats down the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley, the keen-eyed man from the altitudes up the Wilkesboro branch of the Southern, the prisoner going to the "pen" and the statesman bent on saving his country and getting his share of pie, all change cars and wait here. All these varied types are outlined against a broad back-ground of ever-present commercial travelers.

One evening this week on one side of the ladies' waiting room there was at the end of the row of seats a stalwart countryman who, unused to the ways of travel, was made very tired by his journey and putting his black carpet bag down on the seat rested his weary head on it, while his broad sombrero shielded his eyes from the light; next to him was a young city man and then a group of young ladies; by the stove stood two young men of nondescript appearance but with large, strong breaths like a Kentucky bonded warehouse. Two little girls frolicked on the other side and the mother looked on with a pride that was pardonable. So it is every day. There is material there for the painter, the novelist, the poet—for it has been settled that even railroads cannot quite kill poetry.

Last night a party of serenaders went out and, like the Jersey' skeeter on the kraut barrel, bayed the moon. There are very few people that can understand what serenading was made for. It is a tropical plant and does not thrive in this climate. It was cool for it to be left out last night. There were no casualties.

There were some incidents out at the skating grounds yesterday. One young gentleman had much trouble with his skates. They allowed his ankles to turn and his knees to bend and his feet to become entangled the one with the other. They were the most perverse sliders imaginable and they were never content to both go in the same direction. Finally he stopped and after contemplating them for a moment, with a puzzled look, said to a by-stander: "Shay, come shee whash 'matter these skash."

Another young man whose skates were all right was sailing along very smoothly with a young lady when he came to a thin place in the ice. The water beneath was cool and deep, but that young man went for the bottom of it like a scared trout. He took one breath that was as long as the Union Pacific and then he quit skating. The young lady escaped from the wreck dry shod.

The Boston Herald in speaking of the trip of the baseball team to Greensboro conveys the startling piece of information that the "University of Virginia grounds are half way between Greensboro and Raleigh." And this from omniscient Boston! It is too much. We shall probably hear that after the team gets here it will play on the University of North Carolina grounds in Charlottesville or Macon.

A certain successful sewing machine man in town drove out into the country the other day to sell a woman a machine. He tied his horse and started into the house. It seems the woman knew him, for before he had reached the front piazza the door opened and a dog of large proportions sprang out, followed by a "sick 'em! sick 'em!" from the lady of the house. The sewing machine man started for the gate with his overcoat flapping like a weather signal in March. But the dog was too swift; he buried his teeth in the dancing panorama of new overcoat, there was a sound of ripping and tearing and the machine man bounded into his buggy. The dog kept a part of his coat as a memento.
